AGREEMENT

This Agreement dated January 20, 2010 (this "Agreement"), is by and among the persons and entities listed on Schedule A (collectively, the "Icahn Group", and individually a "member" of the Icahn Group) and Take-Two Interactive Software, Inc. (the "Company"). In consideration of and reliance upon the mutual covenants and agreements contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Board Nomination. The Company agrees:

(a) to include Brett Icahn, James Nelson and SungHwan Cho or their respective Replacements (as hereinafter defined) (each, an "Icahn Suggested Nominee", and collectively, the "Icahn Suggested Nominees") in its slate of nominees for election as directors of the Company at the Company's 2010 annual meeting of stockholders (the "2010 Annual Meeting");

(b) that to the extent any of Brett Icahn, James Nelson or SungHwan Cho (or their respective Replacements) is unable to serve as a nominee for election as director or to serve as a director, for any reason, the Icahn Group shall have the right to submit the name of a replacement (the "Replacement") to the Company for its approval (such determination to be made in the sole discretion of the Company acting in good faith) and who shall serve as the nominee for election as director or serve as director. If the proposed Replacement is not approved by the Company, the Icahn Group shall have the right to submit another proposed Replacement to the Company for its approval (such determination to be made in the sole discretion of the Company acting in good faith). The Icahn Group shall have the right to continue submitting the name of a proposed Replacement to the Company for its approval until the Company approves that such Replacement may serve as a nominee for election as director or to serve as a director whereupon such person is appointed as the Replacement;

(c) its slate of nominees for election as directors of the Company at the 2010 Annual Meeting shall not include Ben Feder, Grover C. Brown and John F. Levy; and

(d) to use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the election of the Icahn Suggested Nominees to the Company's board of directors (the "Board") at the 2010 Annual Meeting (including recommending that the Company's stockholders vote in favor of the election of the Icahn Suggested Nominees and otherwise supporting them for election in a manner no less rigorous and favorable than the manner in which the Company supports its other nominees in the aggregate).

2. Board Resignation.

(a) If, at anytime after the date hereof, the Icahn Group, together with all Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) of the members of the Icahn Group, ceases collectively to beneficially own (as defined in Rule 13d-3 promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act")), net of Short Interests (as defined below), at least 4,159,359 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the "Common Stock") (which beneficial ownership shall include the right to vote at least 4,159,359 shares of Common Stock) (the "Ownership Threshold"), the Icahn Group shall cause each of the Icahn Suggested Nominees to promptly tender his resignation from the Board and any committee of the Board on which he then sits. In furtherance of this Section 2, each Icahn Suggested Nominee, upon his appointment to the Board, shall execute an irrevocable resignation as director in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A. "Short Interests" shall mean any agreement, arrangement, understanding or relationship, including any repurchase or similar so-called "stock borrowing" agreement or arrangement, engaged in, directly or indirectly, by a member of the Icahn Group or an Affiliate of a member of the Icahn Group, the purpose or effect of which is to short shares of Common Stock.

(b) The Icahn Group hereby agrees to provide prompt written notice to the Company if together with its Affiliates, its beneficial ownership of Common Stock, net of Short Interests, no longer meets or exceeds the Ownership Threshold.

3. Proxy Contest and Other Matters.

(a) So long as the Company has complied and is complying with its obligations set forth in this Agreement, including those obligations set forth in Section 1 hereto, no member of the Icahn Group shall, and each member of the Icahn Group shall cause each Affiliate or Associate (as such terms are hereinafter defined) of any such members (such Affiliates and Associates, collectively and individually, the "Icahn Affiliates") not to, (i) become a "participant" (as such term is defined in Instruction 3 to Item 4 of Schedule 14A promulgated under the Exchange Act) in or actively assist any third party in any "solicitation" of "proxies" (as such terms are defined in Rule 14a-1 promulgated under the Exchange Act) for use at the 2010 Annual Meeting, (ii) encourage, advise or influence any other person or assist any third party in so encouraging, assisting or influencing any person with respect to the giving or withholding of any proxy vote at the 2010 Annual Meeting in opposition to the Company's slate of nominees for election as directors of the Company, (iii) present any proposal for consideration at the 2010 Annual Meeting or (iv) grant any proxy with respect to the 2010 Annual Meeting (other than to the named proxies included in the Company's proxy card for the 2010 Annual Meeting, which shall include the Icahn Suggested Nominees and no more than five other nominees) or deposit any of the Common Stock held by the Icahn Group or the Icahn Affiliates in a voting trust or subject them to a voting agreement or other arrangement of similar effect with respect to the 2010 Annual Meeting. For purposes of this Agreement: the terms "Affiliate" and "Associate" shall have the respective meanings set forth in Rule 12b-2 promulgated by the SEC under the Exchange Act, provided that neither the term Affiliate nor Associate shall include any person that is a publicly held company or whom is an officer or director of such publicly held company; and the terms "person" or "persons" shall mean any individual, corporation (including not-for-profit), general or limited partnership, limited liability or unlimited liability company, joint venture, estate, trust, association, organization or other entity of any kind or nature.

(b) So long as the Company has complied and is complying with its obligations set forth in this Agreement, including those obligations set forth in Section 1 hereto, each member of the Icahn Group shall cause all shares of Common Stock owned of record and shall instruct the record owner, in case of all shares of Common Stock beneficially owned (as defined in Rule 13d-3 promulgated by the SEC under the Exchange Act) but not owned of record, directly or indirectly, by it, or by any Icahn Affiliate, as of the record date for the 2010 Annual Meeting, to be present for quorum purposes and to be voted, at the 2010 Annual Meeting or at any adjournments or postponements thereof, in favor of the directors nominated by the Board for election at the 2010 Annual Meeting which shall include the Icahn Suggested Nominees and no more than five other nominees.

4. Public Announcement.

(a) The Company and the Icahn Group shall announce this Agreement and the material terms hereof by means of a press release in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Press Release") as soon as practicable on or after the date hereof. Neither the Icahn Group nor any Icahn Affiliate shall make or cause to be made, directly or indirectly, any public announcement or statement regarding this Agreement or the subject matter hereof, except as required by applicable law (in which case such statements shall not be inconsistent with or contrary to the statements made in the Press Release). Neither the Company nor any Company Affiliate shall make or cause to be made, directly or indirectly, any public announcement or statement regarding this Agreement or the subject matter hereof which is inconsistent with or contrary to the statements made in the Press Release.

(b) From the date hereof until the adjournment of the 2010 Annual Meeting, neither the Company, on the one hand, nor the members of the Icahn Group, on the other hand, shall disparage the other party or its officers or directors; provided, however, that (i) the obligations of the Company under this Section 4(b) shall terminate in the event that any member of the Icahn Group or any Icahn Affiliate fails to comply with its obligations under this Agreement and (ii) the obligations of the members of the Icahn Group under this Section 4(b) shall terminate in the event that the Company fails to comply with its obligations under this Agreement.

Take-Two Interactive Software, Inc. to Nominate Three New Directors at 2010 Annual Meeting

New York, NY — January 21, 2010 — Take-Two Interactive Software, Inc. (NASDAQ:TTWO) today announced that the Board of Directors will nominate for election at the 2010 Annual Stockholder Meeting, three new board members to replace Ben Feder, Grover C. Brown, Esq., and John F. Levy, who will not stand for re-election. Take-Two is proposing this change in board representation at the request of certain stockholders, including Carl Icahn, holder of approximately 11.3 percent of Take-Two shares. Ben Feder will continue to serve as Chief Executive Officer of Take-Two.

As part of an agreement reached with Mr. Icahn, Take-Two will nominate for election by stockholders Mr. Icahn's nominees, SungHwan Cho, Brett Icahn and James L. Nelson. Mr. Icahn has agreed that he will vote his shares at the annual meeting for Take-Two's full slate of nominees, which will also include incumbent directors Strauss Zelnick, Michael Dornemann, Robert Bowman, J Moses and Michael Sheresky. If the nominees are elected to the Company's Board and Mr. Icahn's holdings in Take-Two subsequently fall below 5 percent, his nominees will resign from the Board immediately.

Strauss Zelnick, Chairman of Take-Two commented, "I want to express my gratitude to Ben, Grover and John not only for their dedicated service to Take-Two stockholders but also for their very gracious decision not to stand for re-election so that we can facilitate a change in Board composition. It's important to note that Mr. Icahn did not request that these directors in particular step down; they were willing to continue in their role but agreed not to stand for re-election in keeping with their commitment to the Company and desire to put the best interests of stockholders first, as they have done throughout their tenure on the Board."

The Board concluded a director selection process that included a vetting and nominating process for Mr. Icahn's candidates and also the consideration of other independent qualified directors.

"Take-Two has industry-leading development talent and intellectual property," said Carl Icahn. "I'm a firm believer in the long-term potential of the Company, and from a corporate governance point of view I applaud the current board for its responsiveness."

Mr. Zelnick continued, "Advancing our stockholders' interests is the Board's guiding principle, and it's in that spirit that we've undertaken a change in board representation. We have much to accomplish at Take-Two in the year ahead, and we welcome the new directors who each have experience in the entertainment industry and will help us achieve our objectives."

Take-Two Interactive Software, Inc. to Nominate Three New Directors at 2010 Annual Meeting

New York, NY — January 21, 2010 — Take-Two Interactive Software, Inc. (NASDAQ:TTWO) today announced that the Board of Directors will nominate for election at the 2010 Annual Stockholder Meeting, three new board members to replace Ben Feder, Grover C. Brown, Esq., and John F. Levy, who will not stand for re-election. Take-Two is proposing this change in board representation at the request of certain stockholders, including Carl Icahn, holder of approximately 11.3 percent of Take-Two shares. Ben Feder will continue to serve as Chief Executive Officer of Take-Two.

As part of an agreement reached with Mr. Icahn, Take-Two will nominate for election by stockholders Mr. Icahn's nominees, SungHwan Cho, Brett Icahn and James L. Nelson. Mr. Icahn has agreed that he will vote his shares at the annual meeting for Take-Two's full slate of nominees, which will also include incumbent directors Strauss Zelnick, Michael Dornemann, Robert Bowman, J Moses and Michael Sheresky. If the nominees are elected to the Company's Board and Mr. Icahn's holdings in Take-Two subsequently fall below 5 percent, his nominees will resign from the Board immediately.

Strauss Zelnick, Chairman of Take-Two commented, "I want to express my gratitude to Ben, Grover and John not only for their dedicated service to Take-Two stockholders but also for their very gracious decision not to stand for re-election so that we can facilitate a change in Board composition. It's important to note that Mr. Icahn did not request that these directors in particular step down; they were willing to continue in their role but agreed not to stand for re-election in keeping with their commitment to the Company and desire to put the best interests of stockholders first, as they have done throughout their tenure on the Board."

The Board concluded a director selection process that included a vetting and nominating process for Mr. Icahn's candidates and also the consideration of other independent qualified directors.

"Take-Two has industry-leading development talent and intellectual property," said Carl Icahn. "I'm a firm believer in the long-term potential of the Company, and from a corporate governance point of view I applaud the current board for its responsiveness."

Mr. Zelnick continued, "Advancing our stockholders' interests is the Board's guiding principle, and it's in that spirit that we've undertaken a change in board representation. We have much to accomplish at Take-Two in the year ahead, and we welcome the new directors who each have experience in the entertainment industry and will help us achieve our objectives."
