This Amendment No. 7 to Schedule 14D-9 amends and supplements the Schedule 14D-9, originally filed by Take-Two Interactive Software, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on March 26, 2008, as amended by Amendment Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 thereto (the "Schedule 14D-9"), relating to the tender offer commenced by EA08 Acquisition Corp. ("Purchaser"), a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Electronic Arts Inc., a Delaware corporation ("EA"), to acquire all of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the "Shares") at a purchase price of $26.00 net per Share in cash without interest, upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Offer to Purchase dated March 13, 2008 and in the related Letter of Transmittal (which, together with the Offer to Purchase and any amendments or supplements thereto, collectively constitute the "Offer") contained in the Schedule TO filed by Purchaser with the SEC on March 13, 2008. On April 18, 2008, EA and Purchaser announced that they had amended the Offer to adjust the price to be paid pursuant to the Offer to $25.74 per Share as a result of the approval by the Company's stockholders at the Take-Two 2008 annual meeting of stockholders of the Company's proposals to make certain amendments to the Company's Incentive Stock Plan. In addition, Purchaser extended the expiration date of the Offer until 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on Friday, May 16, 2008, unless further extended. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the meanings ascribed to them in the Schedule 14D-9.

ITEM 8. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Item 8(c) is hereby amended by adding thereto the following information.

In re Take-Two Interactive Securities Litigation

On April 16, 2008, the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Court") granted in part and denied in part the motions to dismiss of the Company and its Rockstar Games subsidiary in the purported shareholder class action captioned In re Take-Two Interactive Securities Litigation, No. 1:06-cv-00803 (SWK). The plaintiffs alleged, among other things, that the Company, its Rockstar Games subsidiary and certain of their officers and directors, violated Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, as well as Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder, by allegedly making certain untrue or misleading statements or failing to disclose facts related to allegedly "hidden" content in Grand Theft Auto: San

Andreas. The plaintiffs also alleged that the Company and certain of its officers and directors violated the same sections by allegedly making certain untrue or misleading statements or failing to disclose facts regarding the Company's alleged improper stock option granting practices.

In its decision, the Court dismissed all claims against all defendants, including the Company and its Rockstar Games subsidiary, arising out of the Grand Theft Auto: San Andreas allegations, on the ground that the plaintiffs had not pled scienter adequately as to any of the named defendants.

The Court denied the Company's motion to dismiss the claims relating to alleged improper stock option granting practices (as well as the motions filed by certain of the individual defendants), but granted the motions to dismiss that were filed by the Company's former CFO (Karl Winters) and CEO (Paul Eibeler). However, the Court narrowed the scope of the options backdating claims by eliminating any claim of loss based upon one of plaintiffs' two alleged disclosure dates, thereby limiting the period for which any alleged shareholder damages could be claimed.

The Court granted the plaintiffs permission to replead the dismissed claims to try to cure the deficiencies specified by the Court. The plaintiffs must file any amended complaint, along with a memorandum explaining how they have cured the defects, by May 19, 2008. Briefing thereon is expected to be completed by June 30, 2008.

Dear Team:

As you know, last night we held our annual meeting of stockholders. We are very pleased with the results: stockholders voted in favor of all of the Company's proposals by a wide majority, including the re-election of all members of our Board of Directors.

This morning, EA extended until May 16 its unsolicited conditional tender offer for our Company, after only a miniscule 8.3% of Take-Two stockholders tendered their shares into the offer. They also reduced the offer price from $26.00 to $25.74 per share to reflect the additional shares approved by stockholders under the Incentive Stock Plan.

Together, the favorable annual meeting results and the relatively small number of shares tendered to EA represent a significant vote of confidence by our stockholders in Take-Two's Board and management. They have sent a powerful message to EA: that the value being created by our strategies and your efforts is superior to EA's offer.

We want to thank all of you for staying focused on the priorities that matter most to the Company and our stockholders. This is truly the source of all the progress we have made, and the superior value we are creating at Take-Two.

As always, we will continue to keep you informed of future developments.

Sincerely,

Strauss and Ben
